SYNDICATE OF THEFT SOUGHT

Headquarters of Auto Pirates Suspected to Be in Oakland

Gang's Workings Is Divulged by Arrest, Local Police Say

A clearing-house for stolen automobiles, supplied by an organized gang that has carried on operations all over the state, is being sought by detectives, following disclosures which have pointed to the bay cities as the headquarters for the mysterious automobile thieves' syndicate.

The arrest of Ralph Childs and James Johnson, at Berkeley, where they were apprehended on a charge of stealing a Los Angeles machine, has furnished the latest clue to the gang. Some time ago, when stolen automobiles crashed in a collision on the peninsula, the "auto thieves' syndicate" was hinted at, but could not be located by the police. With the arrest of the men in the south, however, details have come to light.

The organized gang of thieves, it is declared, turn the machines into the clearing-house, situated somewhere in Oakland or vicinity, and here they are dismantled. Rebuilt machines are turned out of the shop, a stolen automobile being divided among half a dozen "new" ones, which are put out for sale.

ONE MACHINE FOUND.

The two men arrested in Hollister are being held on a charge of stealing a machine owned by J. W. Kaiss of Los Angeles. The Kaiss machine was found, stripped, and bearing a false license number, and through it detectives traced the two suspects. According to the authorities some $25,000 worth of automobiles have been stolen by the gang and put through the "clearing-house."

For a time it was thought that the headquarters might be in San Francisco, but, according to Detective Sergeant William Mitchell in charge of the automobile bureau there, this would be impossible, as too close a watch is kept on machines of San Francisco. It was then decided to watch Oakland, and here the detectives declare they find indications of the work of the gang.

"The gang could not maintain its headquarters in San Francisco," declared Mitchell. "For not only do we keep track of the sale of second-hand automobiles, of new registrations and dealers in second-hand appliances, but we have rigid inspection system of tabulation, which prevents just such a ring from organizing. It would be impossible for automobiles to be brought here and stripped and their parts sold separately, or the cars dismantled and sold as second-hand, without our knowledge. I do not believe there is anything in the story. There are a few instances of crooked dealing, but there is no organization."

DETECTIVES AGREE.

Detective Barron of the San Francisco department echoed the sentiments of his chief and declared that the conditions of the state make it impossible. The laws of the state make it necessary that a new owner take out a new license, and the number of cars, even if they are second-hand, is kept tabulated and compared with the numbers of machines reported stolen.

Several of the recent auto thefts in Oakland, cases in which the machines were never found, are laid to the door of the gang, although, according to the detectives, the thieves attempt to have no thefts occur in the city where their shop and clearing-house exists. The police are planning an investigation of a number of suspected places.

Grand Jury Probes Charge Against Craig

The grand jury met today to take up the investigation of charges made by the district attorney against the alleged attempt of David Craig of 1217 Eighth street, to vote in Precinct 10 from which he had removed six months prior to the last city election.

Craig formerly lived in the home of Mrs. H. N. Skinner, 1217 Market street. When he attempted to vote his right was challenged and later a complaint was sought. The matter was presented to District Attorney Hynes and he decided to put the whole matter before the grand jury.

The witnesses called today included the election officer in Precinct 10. They were Mrs. Elizabeth McCaffrey, Mrs. Ellen G. Hyde, Fred G. Millap, S. Towne and George Huff.

The grand jury was in session all day, the evidence being presented by District Attorney Hynes and Assistant James M. Ford.

Indianapolis Auto Eliminations Halted

By Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, May 20.—The Indianapolis auto eliminations were halted today by the first elimination trial for the 20-mile automobile race to be held here May 21. Forty cars are entered and as the number of starters has been limited to thirty-three, seven cars will be eliminated. Each car to be permitted to start, will have to make an average speed of eighty miles an hour and the thirty-three showing the best time above that average will make the start in the race. Three trials will be given, each driver.

No Doubt of Issue

AMSTERDAM, Holland, May 20, via London, 3:20 p. m.—"No one in Italy any longer doubts that war begins today," is the text of a telegram sent from Chiasso, Switzerland, under the date of Thursday (today), and printed in the Berliner Tageblatt.

THOUSANDS CROSS BORDER

ROME, May 20, 11:15 p. m., via Paris May 20, 5:12 a. m.—King Victor Emmanuel, it is asserted, has decided to grant a general pardon to all railway employees who were punished because of the part they took in the strike of May 1914. This action is said to be designed as another step to bring about closer union of all parties in the country.

Legislators Appeal for Life of Frank

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 20.—The senate has adopted a joint resolution petitioning the Governor of Georgia to commute the death sentence in life imprisonment in the case of Leo Frank, convicted of killing Mary Phagan.

Good Prospects for Showers Tomorrow

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—A new storm, rushing inland, off the North Pacific, is responsible for overcast skies and moving clouds which plunged the bay region in gloom early this morning. The disturbance is still too far off for the observers of the United States weather bureau to get a line on its size. But Forecaster G. H. Willson prophesied this morning that it would be the means of bringing showers to California tomorrow.

POPE TO RECALL ENVOYS

BERLIN, May 19, via London, May 20.—It is understood here that the papal nuncios at Munich and Vienna and the Austrian and Prussian representatives at the Vatican will be recalled in case of an outbreak of hostilities with Italy, providing the solution of a difficult diplomatic problem for which there are no precedents in history.

Start Trial for Murder Done 23 Years Ago

GEORGETOWN, Tex., May 20.—Hearing of evidence in the trial of Theodore Armstrong, charged with a murder committed twenty-three years ago, began today. Armstrong is charged with the murder of Sheriff John T. Olive, in Bell county, Texas, in 1892. Among the 150 witnesses summoned to testify are Governor James E. Ferguson of Texas and Secretary of State George G. McKay. Olive was shot and killed at a small switching station near Belton, Tex. Theodore and Noah Armstrong were charged with the killing. Noah Armstrong was tried and acquitted. The case against Theodore Armstrong was dismissed.

Rumania to Remain Neutral, Says Berlin

BERLIN, May 20.—Admiral von Tirpitz received today a dispatch indicating that Rumania will continue neutral should Italy declare war. The same calmness which has been noted in Vienna regarding the Italian situation prevails in Germany and particularly in Berlin. There is no excitement here and perfect confidence is expressed in the face of a situation which is unpleasant but inevitable.

ASK ITALY TO MEDIATE

PARIS, May 20.—The Gaulois publishes today a curious dispatch which mentions an extraordinary alleged development in the Italian situation. This message declares that Prince von Buriel and Baron von Marchetti, the German and the Austrian Ambassadors at Rome, as a last resort of the Italian Government asked it to act as a mediator for peace between the Central empires and the allies. This report has not been heard from any other source.

Repudiates Design to Cross Switzerland

BERLIN, by wireless to London, May 20.—The Cologne Gazette repudiates a report alleged to have been current in America that Germany would cross Switzerland in case of war with Italy. "The case of Switzerland, as the world knows," says the Gazette, "is vastly different from that of Belgium. Belgium neutrality was made in an ambiguous manner by an arrangement with one side, while Switzerland has maintained her neutrality with all parties. Switzerland knows Germany and its ideas and politics too well to take any notice of American and French lies."

Stevenson Moderator of Church Assembly

STRAVINSKY, N. Y., May 20.—Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson of Princeton Theological Seminary was elected moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States on the second ballot today. He received 592 of the 625 votes cast.

Maytorena Forces Are Relied On, Bryan Intimates in Reply

BERKELEY, May 20.—Like a chapter out of the colonial or frontier history of this country, in its tale of Indian conflict, reads the account of Yaqui raids upon American lives and property in the State of Sonora, Mexico, which the organization formed here yesterday made public this morning. Many of the attacks the Americans in the valley have fought off, considered them their own problem and made no protest to the outside world, it is said.

Recently, it is declared by the association, the attacks have been coming with renewed frequency and increased casualties, leading finally to the formulation of the protest in this city, which was sent to Secretary Bryan by Senator Phelan. Roy J. Young, of the local organization, is in receipt of a telegram from Secretary Bryan, transmitted to him by G. C. Singletary, chairman of the committee on information of the new organization. Secretary Bryan wires as follows regarding the latest Yaqui raids:

NAVY DEPARTMENT HAS GIVEN

Admiral Howard appropriate instructions concerning relief measures for Americans in the Yaqui valley, and department is today telegraphing consul at Nogales. It fears additional complications if rifle machine gun with operator should be sent from Nogales to the Yaqui valley at this time. Information just received through consul at Hermosillo and navy department indicate Americans in Yaqui valley no longer surrounded and that sufficient troops to dominate situation, Cruisers Raleigh and New Orleans vicinity Tobarri bay. (Signed): "W. J. BRYAN, Secretary of State."

CONSL SEES PERIL

From American Consul Frederick Smith, the local organization is in receipt of a telegram in which he makes the significant statement: "For reasons which you will understand cannot go into detailed discussion of political phases of Yaqui situation, except to say that I fear it will be difficult to obtain the fullest measure of protection from the Sonora authorities."

Youth to Start on Conquests for Mexicans

BERKELEY, May 20.—To join the aviation forces of General Carranza, Mexican revolutionary leader, Lawrence W. Brown of 2535 Cedar street, left yesterday on his way to the Mexican border. He will report for duty to the Carranza forces near Douglas, Ariz., and will do scout duty as an aviator with the Carranza forces.

Brown is 19 years of age, the nephew of Mrs. J. T. Nash of this city. His home until recently was in Central Point, Ore. He has been attending the aviation school of Glenn Martin in Los Angeles until recently, when he came to Berkeley, until conditions were ready for him to accept an offer from the Carranza forces.

BOTH ACCEPT INVITATION FOR ONE

Dr. F. F. Jackson and W. H. Edwards, commissioners-elect, are both planning on the basis of Commission of Public Health and Safety, according to letter received by Commissioner F. C. Turner, who heads that department today. Turner, some days ago, received a letter to the two commissioners-elect, stating that as one of them will be designated after July 1 as the head of the department over which he now presides, he would be willing to show him over the department and to indicate the work in progress.

ENGLAND IS ENCOURAGED

LONDON, May 20, 12 noon.—The war of depression which has been sweeping England for the past few days following the receipt of war news regarded as unfavorable, was checked today by the definite announcement of the decision of the government to form a coalition cabinet, together with better news from the eastern front.

It is believed here that the Russian advance near Shavli in Poland, where the line of the forces of Emperor Nicholas have been straitened out will do much to counteract the effect of the Austro-German advance in the vicinity of Przemyśl across the River San.

BERLIN, by wireless to London, May 20.—The Cologne Gazette repudiates a report alleged to have been current in America that Germany would cross Switzerland in case of war with Italy.

TRIPLE TREATY IS DENOUNCED BY ITALY
Serb Invasion Marks End of Benevolent Neutrality, Rome Says

By Associated Press.
ROME, May 19, 10:25 p. m. via Paris, May 19, 10:45 a. m.—Diplomatic documents which disclose each successive step in the negotiations which resulted in Italy's denunciation of her treaty of alliance with Austria and Germany are contained in the Green Book issued by the Italian government.
This history of diplomatic interchanges begins with a telegram sent by Foreign Minister Sonnino to the Duke of Avarna, Italian ambassador at Vienna, on December 5, 1914, instructing him to notify Count von Berchtold, then Austrian foreign minister, that the Austrian advance in Serbia constituted a fact covered in Article 7 of the Triple Alliance treaty entitling Italy to compensation. Count von Berchtold replied that his opinion did not agree with this view, but on December 26 indicated that he had begun to change his mind. Baron Burián, who had succeeded Count von Berchtold, tried to evade any definite expression of opinion. The Duke of Avarna, February 25, telegraphed that Austria evidently was trying to gain time, but undoubtedly was being pressed by Germany.
DISCUSSIONS UNDERTAKEN.
March 19, Austria consented to discuss compensation. Foreign Minister Sonnino laid down the cardinal points of the Italian demands. Baron Burián answered that Austria would not accept. Prince von Buelow, the German ambassador in Rome, on March 20, in the name of Germany, guaranteed the execution after the conclusion of peace of any agreement made by Austria. Signor Sonnino agreed to resume negotiations on the condition that Vienna would make concrete proposals.
Seven days later, Baron Burián asked Italy to give formal agreement to the following clauses:
First—The maintenance of

What Italy Demanded
Complete Unity, Plan

By Associated Press.
ROME, May 19, via Paris, May 20, 9:30 a. m.—The minimum demands made upon Austria in behalf of Italy by Foreign Minister Sonnino were:
First—The cession of the entire province of Trent (part of the Austrian Tyrol), according to the frontiers of the Kingdom of Italy in 1871.
Second—Eastern Friuli, comprising Malborghetto, Piuma, Tolmino, Gradisca, Gorizia, Monfalcone, Comen, and as far south as Nabresina.
Third—Triest, Cape d'Istria and Pirano (the last two in Istria) to form a new state independent of Austria.
Fourth—The islands of Curzola, Lissa, Lesina, Lagosta, Cazza and Meleda (off the coast of Lower Dalmatia) to be ceded to Italy.
Fifth—The abandonment by Austria of her interests in Albania, acknowledging Italian sovereignty over Avlona.
benevolent political and economic neutrality throughout the war. Second—Austria to have no free hand in the Balkans. Third—Renunciation on the part of Italy of any further compensation of the existing Italian-Austrian accord concerning Albania.
April 2, Baron Burián added that in exchange for these pledges Austria would give to Italy the districts of Rovereto, Riva and Trento, as well as a few villages.
Signor Sonnino replied that he considered these demands contemptu-ble, nevertheless they were permitted to stand. The rumors of a separate Austro-Russian peace persisting. Rome asked Vienna for a definite answer. In reply, Vienna added a small zone in the Province of Trent to the Italian compensation.

April 25, the Duke of Avarna reported that the Austrian government did not believe Italy ever would make war, and that consequently Vienna regarded a continuance of the discussion as useless.
On receipt of this report, Signor Sonnino, considering any accord impossible, denounced the alliance with Austria-Hungary. He said that last summer Austria-Hungary, without reaching an agreement with Italy and without giving Italy any notice whatever, even disavowing the advice of Italy that moderate demands be made, had decided to go to war. It was an ultimatum, which was the cause of the present conflagration. Thus Austria-Hungary had disturbed the status quo in the Balkans, creating a situation which was of advantage to herself alone.
"NEUTRALITY IMPOSSIBLE."
Such a course of violence made benevolent neutrality impossible, for the reason that Austria-Hungary was fighting to attain an object diametrically opposed to the vital interests of Italy, her ally.
Nevertheless, for several months Italy endeavored to bring about a situation favorable to the re-establishment of friendly relations between the two countries, but these negotiations brought no results. Consequently, the alliance was denounced May 4 by the Duke of Avarna. The duke said Italy was confident of her rights and he affirmed to the Austrian-Hungarian government "that from this moment Italy resumes entire liberty of action, declaring that her treaty with Austria-Hungary is hereby annulled and without effect."
efforts to secure expedition in the case of detained American cargoes. Walter Hines Page, American Ambassador to Great Britain, made three visits recently to Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for foreign affairs, with the sole object of discussing the vexatious delays which it is claimed marked the Admiralty examination of detained cargoes.
It is learned that the foreign office has constantly besought the Admiralty to expedite these examinations, but without result until the last few days when the department seemed to awake to the importance of speed in this work. Since Saturday the Admiralty has reported definite action in the case of a dozen ships.
Several entire cotton cargoes have been purchased by the government under the cotton agreement covering cargoes contracted for before the order in council was issued. Other cotton cargoes have been held for the prize court, but officials here argue that this does not necessarily imply that cotton has been made contraband. As such cargoes may have been ordered into prize courts under orders in council covering the property of hostile countries.
The Foreign Office has received no official intimation of the probable receipt of another American note.

SWEDISH SHIPPING STOPS

By Associated Press.
LONDON, 3:55 a. m., May 20.—Swedish steamship companies, whose boats ply between Stockholm, Norrköping, London and Hull have decided to suspend their services owing to the constant interruption to traffic caused by German warships in the Baltic sea, which have resulted in serious delays and made trade unprofitable.

FRENCH ASSAIL TURK FORT

By Associated Press.
PARIS, May 20, 2:33 p. m.—French troops have been landed at Sedd el Bahi at the southern tip of the Gallipoli Peninsula, and on the European side of the Dardanelles, and are now fighting around the Turkish positions at Krithia, according to a dispatch received by the Grecian newspaper Manager d'Athens from Mudros, Lemnos Island. This information was received today by the Havas News Agency from Athens.

LISBON REVOLUTION WINS

By Associated Press.
LIEBON, via Paris, May 20.—The new ministry, having definitely formed a revolutionary committee, has been dissolved. The capital remains calm.

"The revolution was victorious because it represented the will of the nation, which refused to submit to a dictatorial government trampling down the constitution," said Dr. Jose Castro, acting premier in the new cabinet, in a statement to a representative of the Associated Press. He continued:
"The present government is strictly national; it follows no party creed; its program is solely pacification and union of all Republicans at this moment when the country needs the disinterested aid of all sections. It will govern in accordance with the existing laws, and intends to hold elections in June under conditions ensuring absolute freedom of the vote."
The acting premier received the correspondent in the ministry of the interior, where the broken windows and shattered walls bore witness of the violence of the bombardment by the revolutionary warships last Friday.

NEW U. S. NOTE CAUSES
RENEWED ACTIVITY

By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 20.—The opinion is expressed in official circles here that efforts are being made to anticipate the reported American note dealing with the delays in delivering detained cargoes. Since last Saturday the American embassy has received reports showing that twelve vessels carrying cargoes from American ports had their cases settled in various ways, some going into prize courts, others having cargoes purchased by the British government and still others being permitted to proceed to their destinations, the innocence of their cargoes having been established.
Many of them were cotton ships, but while twenty-eight of these have been detained only three are of American register. One of the latter, the Maude, has discharged her cargo, which was purchased by the government and has been permitted to proceed. Among the curious cases is that of the Swedish steamer Gurnborg, from New York for Gothenburg, Sweden, which was compelled to discharge 250 tons of tobacco that will go to the prize court.

ties. I feel it is needless to re-assure you that I will do everything in my power to secure and maintain adequate troops in the valley."
The protective organization here is in receipt of a further telegram from Harry C. Grigsby, manager of the Sonora Land and Investment Company, in the Yaqui valley, in which he gives the names of three Americans—Donovan, Fay and Wilson, who were killed by the Yaquis in the most recent raids. H. Stocker, another American, was badly wounded, he adds. He also wires:
"Desperate fight between Yaquis and soldiers, assisted by property holders. Yaquis successful. Large mortality among soldiers. Ranches abandoned after unsuccessful fight, except ours, where many gathered to make last stand. Indians retreating at last. Make strenuous protest to proper authorities against deplorable conditions."
A long tale of robbery, pillage and murder committed by Yaqui Indians in their valley in the State of Sonora, much of which has never found its way into the public prints, is contained in the statement which Young was able to give out today, having been collected for the use of the protective association, which sent its wire to Secretary Bryan yesterday. German property suffered as well as American, according to this report. From January of last year, to date the accounts are as follows:
RAID ON RANCH.
"On February 11, they (the Yaquis) raided the Sheldon and Jones ranch. Here they secured all the Mexican women and children and a few Mexican laborers. Sheldon succeeded in getting the rest of the laborers to attack the Indians, with the result that all the Mexican women and children, with the exception of two young women and one Mexican man, escaped from the Indians.
One old Mexican woman was killed and two or three Mexican men. Sheldon has been compelled to turn his ranch house into a fortress, and to place barbed wire fences around it, so as to protect Americans against the attacks of these Indians.
"On February 26, the Indians again raided the ranch of James Anthony, killing an American negro, who was the watchman, taking and destroying in about 100 sacks of wheat, which contained about four bushels to the sack. They also destroyed the house. Anthony was in the habit of staying at the ranch with the negro, but on this occasion he had left the ranch to attend to one of his boys, who had been injured. If the negro had been there he would, without doubt, have been killed. It was probably the intention of these Indians to take all the grain at the ranch, as they stayed at the ranch for about a week. However, the Americans in the valley in the meantime have been driven to the Yaqui valley, where they are being held by the Indians. The Indians have been killed. It was probably the intention of these Indians to take all the grain at the ranch, as they stayed at the ranch for about a week. However, the Americans in the valley in the meantime have been driven to the Yaqui valley, where they are being held by the Indians.
WARNING IS MINATORY.
"Be warned, the Yaquis are here and let the rich people come to an end, that our lands may be vacated."
(Signed): "LAND AND LIBERTY YACUI CAMP."
"The probable explanation of this warning is that the Indians who are attacking the laborers to leave, so that they would have only the American ranchers to fight.
"In April, the Indians attacked the Sheldon and Jones ranch again. In this raid there were none killed. Soon after this raid, they attacked the ranch of James Anthony, near the town of Yaqui. At the time they attacked this ranch there happened to be about 25 Mexican soldiers at the place. There were three Americans on this property at the time, and together with the Mexican soldiers, they were able to hold off the 200 Indians that made the attack until other Americans came to their rescue. In this fight there were about eight Mexicans killed.
"The Indians started raiding again when about 200 attacked Block 90, owned by Sheldon and Jones, both Americans. The fighting lasted for about an hour. Sheldon called the Sonora Land and Investment Company and they sent help, but the Indians had retreated. In this attack one Mexican was killed. This attack occurred about April 12.
"On Saturday last a few days the Indians have made the most desperate and consistent attack that they have ever made. Mr. Grigsby, manager of the Sonora Land and Investment Company, telegraphed that three Americans were killed in this attack—Donovan, Fay and Wilson, and Stocker was badly wounded."

Peace Plans Fail,
U. Committee Reports

The University of California alumni association, which has been in council with the war, has a similar committee from Stanford University, reports informally today that "owing to the irreconcilable differences honestly held by the students of the two institutions concerning the treaty of eligibility rule, both committees think it better that for the present no agreement be made."
This is taken to mean that the arbitration which these alumni committees attempted has entirely failed, and that there is no indication that the breach will be healed. The California committee making the report is Warren Olney Jr., James K. Moffitt and Dr. G. V. Putnam.
The California committee will make its formal report to the students' executive committee of the university regarding the outcome of its deliberations on the present athletic situation.

Lehnhardt Boycott Forbidden by Judge
Permanent injunction against the officers of the Teamsters' Union restraining them from picketing the confectionery store of E. Lehnhardt in Broadway has been issued by Superior Judge Wente.
In disposing of the matter late yesterday Judge Wente sentenced George W. Lester, a picket, to serve five days in the county jail and pay $100 fine for violating the temporary restraining order issued several weeks ago.
Lester, it was shown during the hearing, had been served with the injunction, but later he returned to the Broadway store of Lehnhardt's and induced others to take up the picketing, using his badge.
E. J. Cowing, manager of Lehnhardt's, was one of the principal witnesses in the hearing. He testified as to the conduct of the union pickets in front of the business house.
The case of Frank Rome, accused of assault upon a patron of the establishment while acting as a picket, is pending in the police court.
Judge Wente, in disposing of the injunction matter, denied the injunction restraining the defendants from picketing other persons than the firm of Lehnhardt, including retail merchants in different parts of the city.
The injunction as affecting the Broadway store will practically prevent further picketing, as the majority of the order may be served in succession upon pickets.

ALLIES FIGHTING FOR HEIGHTS OF KILID BARR
By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 20.—The Athens correspondent of the Times sends the following dispatch regarding operation at the Dardanelles:
"On Saturday fierce fighting occurred about the village of Krithia while the allies continued their efforts to occupy the heights dominating KILID BARR, operating principally on the British side.
"Some Turkish forces on the European side of the Dardanelles continue to maintain a sporadic fire. During the last few days the sea has been engaged in destroying the mobile batteries at Erekeul, on the Asiatic shores, which were interfering with our mine sweepers."

BALFOUR WILL BE LORD OF ADMIRALTY

Lloyd-George and Kitchener to Serve as Secretaries of War.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 20.—The Daily Telegraph reports the following appointments to the coalition ministry as almost certain:
A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty.
Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer.
A. Austen Chamberlain, secretary for the colonies.
Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for India.
Earl Kitchener and David Lloyd-George, secretaries for war. Lord Kitchener performing the military, and Lloyd-George the civil duties of the war office.
LONDON PRESS OPINIONS.

The cabinet reconstruction, according to both Liberal and Conservative morning papers, will be most thorough, involving a large number of resignations.
The Morning Post says the cabinet will be reduced in size, the reduction being effected by the exclusion of certain ministers whose offices only within recent years have carried cabinet rank, such as Secretary for Scotland, the president of the board of agriculture and the board of education, the postmaster general and other posts. The papers say these officials will cease to sit in the new coalition cabinet, which will be constituted for the sole end of carrying on the war. The Daily Chronicle agrees with this view.
The Times and the Daily Mail claim that what actually precipitated the sudden crisis was a dispatch from the Times military correspondent in Northern France, revealing that a shortage of high explosives was serious hampering operations and that when the friction arose between Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, and Lord Fisher, first sea lord of admiralty, it became imperative to take action. These papers and the Morning Post express the conviction that one of the first results of the new departure will be serious changes for national service, not merely for actual fighting, but for provisions, munitions and employment.

CONSCRIPTION EXPECTED.
A huge advertisement appears in all the morning papers in behalf of the war effort, calling upon men up to the age of 40 to enlist. The Daily Mail describes this as a scandal, when the papers are full of reports about the streets, and adds that it is clear that conscription is coming.
The Daily Mail says it understands that John E. Redmond, the Nationalist leader, refuses to join the new ministry. Newspaper predictions regarding the new appointments differ considerably.
The Morning Post nominates Andrew Bonar Law, opposition leader in the House of Commons, for Earl Kitchener's adjutant at the war office, but most of the other papers point to David Lloyd-George.
According to the Times it has not yet been decided who are the ministers to retire. This paper says that the whole administration, from top to bottom, will be changed, appointments not being limited to the cabinet. The new plan, says the Times, is that there should be a fair division of offices, both great and small, between the several political parties, according to the ratio of their representation in Parliament; that instead of the former unwieldy cabinet needing an inner council to conduct its affairs, the new cabinet will in effect be a real war council. The nearest parallel to the new coalition, adds the paper, can be found in "the ministry of all the talents," formed by Fox and Granville in 1806.

WAR PLANS ABORTIVE.
The cabinet crisis, according to the London well informed parliamentary correspondent of the Daily News, was precipitated by Lord Kitchener's failure to keep the ministry informed regarding supplies of ammunition sent to the front. Huge supplies of shells had been sent, but the proportion of shrapnel is reported to have been greater than that of high explosives, whereas the army required a preponderance of high explosives.
Opposition leaders who were in possession of these facts, says the Daily News, threatened a debate in the House of Commons to prove their accuracy. Such a debate would have undermined gravely the authority of the government. Coupled with the admiralty quarrel and the resignation of Lord Fisher, the paper asserts, it probably would have meant the downfall of the government, which would have been considered lamentable in the midst of war. The moment was seized, therefore, by representatives of both sides anxious for a coalition cabinet and the government assented to this solution to avert a worse crisis.

Holland Forms Great Army in All Colonies

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, May 20.—With the arrival of H. ter Porten, aviator lieutenant of the Dutch army, it became known today that Holland had contracted for the construction here of two great hydro-aeroplanes to be furnished not later than July 15. Each machine will have a 42-foot wing span, and a carrying capacity of 1000 pounds.
Lieutenant ter Porten, who is attached to the Dutch East Indian service, was quoted today to the effect that Holland was developing an army of 40,000 men in her colonial possessions, and planning for the organization of a militia of 450,000 men.
"It is no secret," said the lieutenant, "that officers of our Indian forces have been in this country several months buying shells, cartridges, machine guns, copper and other munitions of war."

U. S. WARSHIPS PLAY WAR

Wilson Praises Navy; He Wants Big One

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 20.—President Wilson's admiration of the Atlantic fleet, which he reviewed at New York early this week, were set forth in the following statement issued at the White House today, upon the President's return:
"I was greatly struck by the appearance of the fleet and the quiet efficiency shown by the officers and men, as I am sure every one must have been who had the pleasure of seeing it assembled at New York. There could have been no more interesting verification of Admiral Dewey's statement that the navy was never in a better or more efficient condition and that the country not only have every reason to be proud of it, but every reason to wish to go forward in its policy of steadily adding to its strength and equipment."

By Associated Press.
NEWPORT, R. I., May 20.—The defense of the coast from Portsmouth, N. H., to Cape Hatteras against attack by an invading fleet was the problem which occupied the attention of the Atlantic fleet beginning at midnight. At that hour the battleships, destroyers and submarines which steamed out of New York Tuesday under review by President Wilson, became the fleet of defense in the main war arranged by the navy department to test the strength of the country's protection against foreign invasion.
Somewhere at sea were the vessels of the hostile fleet. The scout cruiser Chester, flagship of Rear Admiral Frank E. Beach, who is in charge of the threatened attack on the coast, believed to represent a division of super dreadnaughts. The mine layer San Francisco was thought to be regarded as a transport group, headed for a beach on which to land a fighting force. Three torpedo boat destroyers were mimic equivalents of other elements of an invading fleet.

These vessels, which left here several days ago, are to make their dash at some point on the northwestern seaboard.

FLEET TO REPEL ATTACK.
To surprise this attack and repel the invasion is the task of Admiral Frank B. Fletcher, commanding the Atlantic fleet. The great naval strength represented on the Hudson river for the past week is at its disposal, each unit to carry out its part in a scheme of national defense such as would obtain in actual war.
It is believed here that the torpedo boat destroyers of the fleet have already been disposed to form a skirmish line covering all that part of the coast supposedly in danger of attack.

The question whether the United States has been invaded or whether the enemy fleet has been repulsed, is to be determined by Rear Admiral Austin M. Knight, president of the Naval War College. He is now at sea on the cruiser Brooklyn, accompanied by representatives of the leaders of the opposing forces. The Brooklyn is to keep constantly in touch with the movements in the game by wireless.

The extent to which arrangements for conditions as nearly as possible approaching those of real war have been carried, is indicated by the fact that every naval radio station on the Atlantic coast has been ordered devoted exclusively to the war game.
The submarine E-1 arrived at the torpedo station last night. The E-2, reported from Washington to have been taken in tow for Newport after breaking her crankshaft, had not arrived at a late hour.

STREET WIDENING PROTEST HEARD

City Council, After Long Controversy, Finds No Present Public Necessity.

The bill was passed before the city council today after a lengthy controversy over the widening of Seventeenth street, from Telegraph to Broadway. A. S. Macdonald, representing several of the protestants, had declared that there was no public necessity for the street improvement, and had stated that while a dozen of the most prominent business men of the city were opposing the bill, a council in protest, only one man, Walter Leimert, president of the Oakland Hotel Company, and vice-president of the Wickham Havens Company, was urging the matter. He insinuated that Leimert had reasons for his stand.
"What do you mean?" demanded Leimert.
"Since you ask, I mean that Leimert and the Wickham Havens concern have options on several pieces of property that would be benefited by this widening," answered Macdonald.
"It is not true," said Leimert. "We have no options within this district."
"It is a fact," hotly returned Macdonald. "The property owners from whom Leimert and Havens have obtained these options have told me."
"It is untrue that either Wickham Havens or Leimert own any of this property," said Leimert. "Whoever says that we have is telling a falsehood."
"You are not interested, either directly or indirectly in such options?" queried Macdonald.
"Neither directly nor indirectly," answered Leimert.
"Then the property owners lied to me," said Macdonald. "But it is a fact that there is no public necessity for this widening. The street is wide enough. Wall street, in which more business is transacted in fifty days than is transacted in Oakland in fifty years, is no wider. Neither is Thirteenth street in London. I have never been elbowed from the sidewalk there."
Leimert stated that he believed some of the protestants had acted under a misapprehension as to the probable cost of the widening, and at his request the matter was put over for two weeks that there may be conferences over this phase of the situation.
It had been urged that the city bear one-quarter of the burden of the widening. It is estimated that the total cost will be about $30,000, making the city's share $20,000.
"We cannot pledge the next council to give that amount," said Commissioner of Streets W. J. Baccus. "The matter should be settled after July 1."
Protestants admitted that at some future date the street should be opened, but declared that the cost would be burdensome at present, that the assessment districts is inequitable, and that there is no actual public necessity. Attorney Charles E. Snook represented the protestants, and among those who spoke against the project were James P. Taylor, Charles Jurgens, James McElroy, C. F. Thompson, A. D. Wilson, Thomas W. Corder, Max Taft and A. S. Macdonald.

OFFICIAL WAR STATEMENTS
By Associated Press.
BERLIN, May 20.—The German army headquarters staff today gave out the following statement:
"In the western theater:
"Gloomy and hazy weather hindered active fighting in Flanders and Northwestern France yesterday. We made a little progress in the Lorette hills.
"At Abblain a night advance attempted by the enemy was repulsed after hand to hand fighting.
"Between Mense and the Moselle artillery duels were especially fierce. At daybreak the French commenced an attack to the east of July extending over a wide front but were everywhere repulsed in certain sections after fierce hand to hand fighting.
"In the eastern theater:
"We had no engagement with the strong forces of the enemy reported to be advancing on the line of Stadora-Franzenburg.
"Russian attacks on the Dubrava were repulsed. Nine hundred prisoners and two machine guns remained in our hands.
"Yesterday we attacked to the north of Rodubis. We captured a hill and took 300 more prisoners.
"Russian forces advancing south of the Niemen were completely defeated at Grykambuda. Symchitz and Szaki. Remnants of the enemy's forces are fleeing in an easterly direction into the forest. Minor divisions still are holding Sutil.
"The losses of the Russians killed were very heavy and the number of prisoners for this reason increases by only 2000. Two hundred and four more machine guns were captured.
"In the southeastern theater:
"The enemy everywhere was repulsed with very considerable losses. This morning we opened a counter attack on one of his wings and stormed the enemy's position. He is fleeing as quickly as possible."

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF AUSTRALIAN VOLUNTEERS WOUNDED IN DARDANELLES

By Associated Press.
LONDON, May 20, 3:25 a. m.—A British casualty list issued today includes the names of 170 officers and 1400 men. Nine hundred casualties in the Australian ranks on the Gallipoli peninsula are reported as well as naval losses of 150 in the same area. The list of wounded is headed by the name of Sir William Birdwood, commander-in-chief of the Australian forces in the Dardanelles.

General Birdwood's military career began in 1885, when he was appointed a lieutenant in the Royal Scots Fusiliers. He has seen service in South Africa and India and several times has been mentioned in dispatches for heroism. He was severely wounded in South Africa. From 1912 until the outbreak of hostilities he was secretary to the government of India in the army department and a member of the Governor-General's legislative council.

SCHOOL MUSICIANS TO PLAY TONIGHT

Vocalists Also Will Appear in Concert at Civic Auditorium.

Young musicians and vocalists of the elementary schools will give their first concert of the spring at the municipal auditorium, tonight, under the direction of Glen H. Woods, director of music in the Oakland school department. Three school organizations will band together to give the concert, which will demonstrate to the people of the city the nature of the musical education being taught pupils in the elementary grades. Those to participate will be the elementary school band of fifty members, the elementary school orchestra of fifty members, and the elementary school chorus, which includes more than 250 voices. There are many girl musicians in the orchestra. The chorus has, approximately, an equal number of boys and girls. They are the picked vocalists of the seventh and eighth grades.

Herbert Turner, who is supervisor of hands and orchestra for the school department, will assist Woods in the direction of the concert. A big crowd is expected, as tonight's concert will prove the first opportunity the general public has had to review the progress of the young musicians. No admission charge is to be made.

The musical work being done in the three high schools of the city will be demonstrated at the municipal auditorium tomorrow night, when high school band, orchestra, and chorus will give their first concert of the present season. This also will be under the direction of Woods and Turner.

An added feature of tomorrow night's program will be the singing of Mrs. Glenn H. Woods. Fred G. Harrison will sing a baritone solo.

Are Mid-Victorian Mantillas to Be In Style Again?

Mrs. Walter Hobart is wearing a mantilla. Black, of course, since Europe is in mourning.

Both Mrs. Hobart and her sister, Mrs. Fred Humes of New York, wear unadorned black, like other women in their set.

Over her dull black satin costume at the St. Francis the other day Mrs. Hobart had thrown a mantilla of black tulle. At least it looked like mantillas of the mid-Victorian period, which are different from Spanish mantillas, of course. For one thing, they are pronounced to rhyme with vanilla. It was a long, broad scarf of silk that fitted slightly over the shoulders, and was bordered with a narrow ruche. Very graceful as Mrs. Hobart wore it, though it looked confining to the arms. Mid-Victorian ladies held their arms primly, with hands clasped over the handles of their reticules.

It suggested a possible imitation of dolmans. Next winter may see them returned in their queer ornithological effects. Pictures of the dolman period show women like ungainly birds with folded wings. With them one finds the polonaise revived. Family albums of two generations ago studied for styles.

Mrs. Hobart's hat was a small black straw, with no brim to speak of. Portraits of Empress Eugenie in her youth have the same sort. But it's odd that other women, following the idea, will forget that Empress Eugenie, who looked well in hers, and Mrs. Hobart, who is always stunning, have (or had in the Empress' case) unusual beauty.

FOR MRS. KEENEY.

The tapestry room of the Hotel Oakland was the setting for a delightful party given this afternoon by Mrs. William Keene, in honor of Mrs. Charles Keene. The long French windows opening to the garden, showed a charming vista and the room was especially attractive with baskets of spring flowers, yellow being the predominating color, and the paintings of Jules Fages which are hung in the tapestry room to lend an added interest. Mrs. Keene was assisted by Mrs. William G. Henshaw, Mrs. Frank Adams and Miss Nellie Adams, but there was no receiving party. The guests numbered sixty. Those present included: Mrs. Victor Metcalf, Mrs. Samuel Hubbard Sr., Mrs. Samuel Hubbard Jr., Mrs. Edson Adams, Mrs. Harry Meek, Mrs. Harrison Clay, Mrs. W. F. PAVLOVA WILL AID IN CHARITY

Dancer to Auction Silver Tag for West Oakland Home.

The announcement that Mrs. Pavlova was to auction a silver tag, presented to her by the West Oakland Home, has caused a decided furore, not only among the ladies in charge of the West Oakland Home, but among the people generally, and a renewed charge upon the box office was the result. The double purpose of this particular tag will serve makes it of unusual value. It will be the property of the most famous dancer in the comparatively few days of her stay, and the proceeds of the sale, which promise to be generous, will help to care for eighty children, whom misfortune has given to the public charge.

Pavlova and her great company of artists will be the first to arrive in the West of the world of this city's big-hearted people. Pavlova has a great love for children that she has exhibited on many occasions and has literally adopted twelve or fourteen whom she is caring for. She knows what it is to want something and she has a child's longing. When she was very small, the pupils of the Russian Ballet Institute which she attended, gave a special performance for Emperor Alexander. After the performance she kindly spoke to the children and took up one of them in her arms and kissed him on the forehead. The little Pavlova had become queen of the dance, the Emperor offered to make amends, when he learned of the childish episode, but her answer was, "It's too late now. You missed your chance."

At the matinee, where the thousands of children who have been purchasing seats during the week, will be congregated to greet Pavlova, Puppen-Pee will be the feature of most interest to the little ones of every age and as it is the first part of the program, it would be advisable for everyone to be in their seats promptly. "Walpurgis Night" to the grown-ups, will be a beautiful scenic and dramatic rendering of a portion of Goethe's Faust, a silent opera. To the children it will be as if some fairy tale of ogres and evil spirits, where, of course, the good fairy always appears just in time, being being pictured on living pages and where every instant their attention is held in thrill. The diversions will be equally attractive to both kiddies and parents, the list including Voltaire's delightful Pierrot (dance) and Pavlova in her marvelous "Swan Lake."

Seats will continue to be on sale at the Macdonough Theater box office until Saturday, when Pavlova and her company of nearly 200 people will appear at the Oakland Auditorium, both afternoon and evening.

NEWSPAPERMEN
INVESTIGATE

Reporters Prove New Method
Painless and Satisfactory.

Five reporters from leading Oakland and San Francisco newspapers gathered at Dr. Schaffert's offices in the Macdonough building on the corner of Fourteenth and Broadway to witness a demonstration of the much-talked-of N2O & Oxygen, which has recently been introduced in this city from the East. Several Oakland and San Francisco dentists also were present.

Although Dr. Schaffert has been administering N2O & Oxygen for some time with astonishingly successful results, it was still looked upon skeptically by the newspapers.

To prove that this air does render the nerves absolutely insensible, Dr. Schaffert, without putting the patient to sleep, the Doctor invited the reporters and dentists who were interested to try N2O & Oxygen themselves.

The first reporter hesitated about taking N2O & Oxygen. "You know, Doctor," he said, "I've got a long day's work ahead of me and I don't want to take this air if it will leave any after-effects."

Dr. Schaffert reassured him and commenced on a sensitive tooth. The decay was quickly cut out and the tooth without N2O & Oxygen would have been a painful operation of one-half hour was completed in six minutes without causing the patient a particle of pain. While breathing this air he was perfectly normal, laughing and joking with his fellow reporters and being able to see and hear everything that was going on.

When the work was completed, N2O & Oxygen was turned off and the reporter got up from the dental chair immediately and said he felt "fine." There were no after-effects of any kind.

Others then took N2O & Oxygen with the same splendid results.

Dr. Schaffert then explained the apparatus to those present. The basic properties, he said, are the same as those of pure air in different proportions, and therefore entirely harmless.

Dr. Hally Smith of Paris and Dr. Gotch, the greatest surgeon in Europe, are enthusiastic users of N2O & Oxygen, and it is being used extensively in the large hospitals of the East and Europe.

The reporters and dentists united in their praise of the new method, declaring that they would never again dread the dental chair if N2O & Oxygen were used.

Dr. Schaffert invites the public to call at any time at his offices, second floor, room 2, Macdonough building, 1322 Broadway, corner Fourteenth street, where they can see the administration of N2O & Oxygen. The office is open from 9 to 5:30 week days, Sundays 10 to 12. A free booklet and other information on this subject can be obtained by phoning his offices, beside 24.—Advertisement.

New, Positive Treatment to Remove Hair or Fuzz
(Beauty Notes)
Women are fast learning the value of the use of delatone for removing hair or fuzz from face, neck or arms. A paste is made with some powdered delatone and water and spread on the hairy surface. In 2 or 3 minutes it is rubbed off, the skin is washed and every bit of hair has disappeared. No further use will result if you are careful to buy genuine delatone.—Advertisement.

In Words of the Great

Too many churches and too many ministers are causing stress in the foundations of religion, William Howard Taft declared before the thirty-third Ohio Constitutional Conference.

"There should be co-operation and not competition in the church life," he said. "Christian unity is a necessity, but it has not been a marked success in stopping this war."

Predicting that the population of the United States would reach 400,000,000 before the close of the twentieth century, James J. Hill, addressing the Peoria, Ill. Association of Commerce, urged the conservation of our resources and proper cultivation of the soil.

What do we desire for South America? Perhaps we might be able to sell some of our manufactured products, but the wealth of this country lies in the products of the soil. The prominent South American countries produce cattle, corn and wheat so we do, and compete with us in the markets of the world."

A new immigration policy of the United States Government, as brought out by war conditions in Europe, was outlined by United States Commissioner of Immigration Anthony Caminetti in an address before the fourteenth annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs.

"Alfred Wilson," said Commissioner Caminetti, "does not desire to send one single immigrant back to his country where any danger might come to him. The immigration policy of the government goes even further; it will not even send any immigrant back to England or France."

S. P. ISSUES BOOKLET ON CALIFORNIA CANYONS
For the mountain lover, the adventurous explorer and the sportsman, the heart of the Sierra holds nothing more attractive than the great gorges of the Kings river and the Kern river canyon in California. The Southern Pacific Company has had printed for free distribution to 100,000 tourists an attractive booklet describing this region under the title of "Kings and Kern Rivers Canyons."

Kings River Canyon is on the south fork of the Kings river and has been called by John Muir "second Yosemite." Above the head waters of the river is Mt. Whitney, the highest mountain in the United States, excepting Alaska.

The Kern River Canyon is a cleft, running north and south for thirty miles, through which the mountain stream makes a turbulent way.

Both districts offer excellent fishing and hunting grounds, untroubled save by a few adventurous sportsmen. They abound in mountain meadows that were once glacial lakes. With the streams and lakes and the open park-like giant forest trees, this region is delightful to the man or woman who really loves the wild side of nature. General Giant National Park is also located here. Hotel and camp accommodations are ample and moderate priced.

The trip is made over the Southern Pacific to either Visalia or Sanger, in the first instance the journey being continued by the Visalia Electric Railway to Lemon Cove and thence to Juanita Meadows by auto stage, and in the latter case directly by auto stage from Sanger.

An outing in these canyons is ideal for the traveler who wants to really see America first.

WOMAN WAGE SCHEDULE AROUSES TRADE UNIONS
By Associated Press. LONDON, May 20.—The government civil service commissioners have announced the schedule of wages to be paid for clerical labor to women who will be employed in order to release males for military service. The weekly rates follow:

Typists, twenty shillings ($4.50); ordinary clerical work, 21 to 25 shillings; shorthand typists, 25 to 30 shillings; supervising clerks, 30 shillings.

These rates are from a fifth to a third lower than the wages paid to temporary male labor in the same positions and women's associations and trades unions have lodged vigorous protests. They insist that women should be paid the same rates as the men whom they replace and urge that the government's example will be used by outside employers to exploit women's labor to the detriment of men.

Madero's Brother Is Involved in Lawsuit

By Associated Press. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 20.—Madero, a brother of the late president of Mexico, and his friends were involved in a lawsuit today to recover $100,000 allegedly lost by Madero's brother in a bank on April 16, to be paid upon delivery by R. W. Hall of New York.

Madero's brother was a temporary resident in New York and was recovering the money from the bank until the case was tried.

Madero alleged that a contract was made for immediate delivery of the money and that he was asked to return the money to the bank.

PROFESSOR E. P. HEALD RECOVERING HEALTH
Recovery of Prof. E. P. Heald, head of a chain of business colleges which bear his name, was announced today. Professor Heald has been seriously ill for several weeks. He is now able to leave his bed for long periods during the day and is making plans to leave for Honolulu in a short time.

Gabriele d'Annunzio, the poet, who has been a leader among the strong advocates of national expansion through war with Austria, was received in private audience by King Victor Emmanuel, and when he returned from the palace he said:

"Certainly King Victor Emmanuel is the right man in the right place—the king whom Italy needs in this supreme moment."

DOCTORS FLOOD EMBASSY WITH APPLICATIONS
By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 20.—Unverified reports from Vienna in the American press to the effect that Austria-Hungary was in dire need of physicians for the army at a pay of $6 or $7 a day have brought a flood of letters to the American embassy from doctors all over America offering their services.

Most of the letters contain a careful inquiry as to the honorarium, but others merely indicate a willingness to depart at once if the offer of transportation and expenses are included. As the embassy officials have had no news from their foreign office on this subject they are telling the applicants to apply to Vienna.

The letters which started coming in dozens, are increasing until it requires most of the time of one department to reply to them.

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS ARE COMING
General interest in Alameda county churches is being taken in the coming of the first big convention to meet in Oakland's Auditorium, the International Bible Students, at which Pastor Russell of the London and Boston Tabernacles, and president of the organization, will be heard in several new and remarkable interpretations of the Scriptures.

E. D. Sexton, head of the local committee, announced today that practically all details for the reception of the delegates are completed.

The convention will be in session for more than a week.

JOURNALISTIC COLONEL COMES WEST FOR U. S.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Col. Al Fairbrother of Greensboro, N. C., who probably knows more political leaders, state and national, from the Atlantic to the Pacific than any other newspaper man in the United States, has arrived in San Francisco as an attaché of the United States government commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Fairbrother is proud of his military title, even if he did earn it in newspaper work. He is a peace-loving man, but he is not a peace-loving man in the sense of the word "peace" as it is used in the world of today.

Much interest is attached to the announcement that Mary Pickford, the world's screen idol, is to appear for three days at the Oakland Photo Theater, beginning next Sunday. In a film version of George Sand's immortal characterization, "Fanchon the Cricket."

Fanchon, "Little Mary" portrays the famous girl of the woods, who rises above the animosity and cruelty of the villagers who persecute, until she reaches the greatest heights that woman can attain—devotion to her lover and her supreme sacrifice for his life and happiness. There are not many dramas produced in this time and screen that present such a combination of attractive qualities as "Fanchon." It draws a true picture of life under varying colors and aspects. But throughout the various environments in which the story develops, Mary Pickford is as true to the expectations of her admirers as the character she portrays is to life.

In her unaffected charm and boundless dramatic power, in her sympathy, compelling rendition of the suffering of the character she impersonates, and in the unconscious simplicity in which she develops her great climax of sacrifice, Mary Pickford proves beyond the shadow of a doubt her right to the distinction of being the world's most famous motion picture star. The supporting cast includes Lottie and Jack Pickford, sister and brother of the sovereign of the screen.

Edmund Breese, in Robert W. Service's poem depicting life in the great snow world, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," is the other feature of the program for next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

U. S. JUSTICE AND LAWYER IN CLASH

Senator Bailey Threatens to Withdraw From Case.

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, May 20.—Argument in the Kansas Lane, bankruptcy suit against Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller Williams started off in the district supreme court today with a clash between former Senator Bailey, chief counsel for the bank, and Justice McCoey. Bailey threatened to withdraw from the case, and Justice McCoey threatened to refuse to hear the lawyer's argument.

Senator Bailey was arguing for the admissibility of an affidavit disclaiming relations between the bank and Lewis Johnson & Co., bankrupt stock-brokers. Justice McCoey interrupted to say he had already ruled it would be admitted that further argument took time.

"Your honor has taken more time than I intended to take for what I intended to say," replied Mr. Bailey.

"Your remarks are highly improper," returned the justice.

"Please understand that, I do not care for any more discussion. Another remark of that kind and some other counsel will argue this case."

Mr. Bailey tossed his papers to the table and turning away replied:

"If the court feels that way about it, I will withdraw from this case now."

"Do as you please about that," retorted the justice, "but don't make such a remark again."

Several of the bank's lawyers surrounded Senator Bailey, and after some conferences, he said to the court:

"I feel that I owe to my clients a duty higher than I owe to myself. Therefore, I will remain and continue the argument."

"I also feel that I owe a duty to your clients," replied Justice McCoey, "and that will lead me to dismiss what you have said from my mind."

Whereupon the argument proceeded.

'MYSTERY HOUSE' SUSPECT IN COURT

Clyde F. Young, Extradited From Mexico, Promises to Restore $6000 Gems.

Clyde F. Young, extradited from Mexico over a month ago by the new method of being "booted over the line," was brought into court today after being held in the Oakland city prison for over thirty days without a warrant having been served upon him. Young was tried in Mexico following an investigation of the disappearance of diamonds valued at over $6000 from the "house of mystery" in which the bodies of Mildred Fulton and Jane Riley, two sisters, were found dead last February.

Young was held in jail by the consent of his attorney, John Rose, pending an attempt by the police to recover the jewels through information furnished by him. Some of the gems were recovered in San Francisco, while others have not yet been found.

On the promise of Young that the diamonds would be forthcoming within a short time, the hearing of his case was put over until June 2d by Judge Mortimer Smith today.

The charge filed against Young is that of grand larceny. He was accused of having brought back from Mexico on a charge of failure to provide for his wife on an old warrant. He has not as yet been booked on the failure to provide charge.

Young stated that he had been given the jewels by Mildred Fulton. The only witnesses against Young in the grand larceny case were the two sisters whose death led to the investigation. The case against him is not a strong one, and if the diamonds are recovered it will be dismissed. The investigation was made at the request of Dr. M. M. Fulton, brother of the two women, who came to California to investigate from Moorhead, Minnesota.

2 WIVES--'DEATH'--JAIL
Brown Braves 'Em; One Quits, One Sticks

Mrs. Thomas Judson Brown No. 2, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth Hallahan of Oakland, declares that she will stand by her bigamous husband, who has been sentenced to one year in prison because he sought to blot out his past life and memory of his first wife by going into the Yosemite valley and "dying" a death in the future water.

Mrs. Brown No. 1, who is now in Merced, has expressed a hope that her husband will be sent to San Quentin, according to attorneys who have been consulting with the case. Attorney A. R. Schottky of Merced is representing Mrs. Brown No. 2.

Schottky, during a recent visit to Visalia, also talked at length with Brown, who spoke freely of his domestic affairs, saying that his first marriage was a loveless match, and explaining further that he entered into it without enthusiasm and that it was devoid of happiness. The bigamist also maintained that when he left the ranch near Merced upon which he and Mrs. Brown were living, and went to Yosemite, where he met

MME. GROUTCH BEGS AID

She Describes Horrors of Typhus in Serbia

Pleading, with the most touching eloquence, for the suffering people of Serbia, Madame Slavko Grouch, American wife of the Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs of that country, stirred to tears an audience that gathered yesterday at the Hotel Oakland to hear the tragic story she brought across the seas. Among the listeners were many society women, a number of clergymen and a contingent of Serbians, who sat motionless, the sense of disaster too horrible almost for comprehension. After she ceased to speak, a contribution of nearly one hundred dollars had been taken, most of the hearers surrounded her to ask what more could be done.

Tents for Serbia is what Madame Grouch asks of California; tents in which to care for the innumerable sick, who have been stricken by the terrible typhus fever that has already burned up more lives than the gun fire of Austria.

"Added to the sufferings of war, they are experiencing as great, or a greater, horror," she said in poignant voice. "Only 32,000 men perished in the trenches—75,000 have died of fever."

"That was a month ago. How many have died since then?" she went on. "I dare not think. It takes only eight days for typhus to reach its crisis."

Help for Serbia, if it is not to be futile, must be immediate, according to the distinguished woman who has come to America on the urgent mission of enlisting aid. Otherwise, she declared, the Serbian soldier will come back from the front to find—nothing. And she told the story of a fighter who had only a key to show that he had ever had a home.

"The new enemy," she emphasized, "is typhus fever. If it is not checked now there will be no women and children in Serbia—the little houses will be empty."

"The only way to fight this disease," she continued, "is to denude the victims of their clothing; to remove them from the places where they are living, and treat them scientifically. To do this we must have tents in which to shelter them from the cutting winds, winds more cutting than those you have heard of. And every tent, whether it be made of canvas or clean straw, in clean clothing, with nurses to attend them, means a chance for life for at least twenty individuals."

"But we must have 100,000 tents adequately to care for all."

In describing her dismay at learning that Serbia needed 100,000 tents, each costing from $100 to $150, and for which there was absolutely no money to pay, Madame Grouch told of ordering 20,000 of them in New York, trust to the generosity of this country that somehow financial aid would be found. She said she was taking to fill the order, and the month more required to transport it to Serbia.

"My heart sank," she added, "to think how long when every tent was so precious, it would take, even to do that. But there is still time to help, and the money is beginning to come in."

"The only way to fight this disease is to denude the victims of their clothing; to remove them from the places where they are living, and treat them scientifically. To do this we must have tents in which to shelter them from the cutting winds, winds more cutting than those you have heard of. And every tent, whether it be made of canvas or clean straw, in clean clothing, with nurses to attend them, means a chance for life for at least twenty individuals."

"But we must have 100,000 tents adequately to care for all."

In describing her dismay at learning that Serbia needed 100,000 tents, each costing from $100 to $150, and for which there was absolutely no money to pay, Madame Grouch told of ordering 20,000 of them in New York, trust to the generosity of this country that somehow financial aid would be found. She said she was taking to fill the order, and the month more required to transport it to Serbia.

"My heart sank," she added, "to think how long when every tent was so precious, it would take, even to do that. But there is still time to help, and the money is beginning to come in."

ADOPT $75,000 PLANS New Detention Home Is to Be Model

Plans and specifications for detention home and juvenile court building to cost $75,000 were adopted at a meeting of the committee of the whole of the supervisors today. The new building is to be erected on land purchased by the county last year on Eighteenth street, between Union and Poplar streets. Bids for the work will be opened on the first Monday morning in July, as the structure is to be built with funds from next year's budget.

When completed, the new detention home will be one of the most complete and modern institutions of the kind in the west. The building will be class C construction, of reinforced concrete, and two stories in height. The first floor will house the probation authorities' offices, a doctor's suite, a large court room and waiting rooms. On the second floor will be located the detention home proper. This will include dormitories for boys and girls, rooms for the matrons, a superintendent's room, kitchen, dining room, in the basement will be located store rooms and the heating and hot water systems.

The building will have a frontage of 175 feet on Eighteenth street. At either end of the main structure, wings are to be constructed, each to be forty feet in length. The space in the rear of the building is to be used as a service yard. Space is provided for a series of six playgrounds for the boy and girl inmates of the place. Henry H. Meyers is the architect.

PELAGOGUES AGOG OVER CRITICISM

State "Education Crazy?" Not So Teachers Notice It.

Heated replies from teachers and educationists to this test of the projective views expressed by the legislature, are the result today of Assemblyman George Gelder's denunciation of California's school teachers and the school system. At the meeting of the Merchants' Exchange yesterday, Gelder declared that California is "education crazy," and announced that teachers' conventions were invented principally to raise salaries and make trouble for state legislatures.

That Gelder had spoken before fully investigating was charged today by Superintendent A. C. Barker of the Oakland schools. Said Barker:

"Mr. Gelder objects to teachers having a three months' vacation over the convention period. If Mr. Gelder were to investigate he would find that the teaching period remains exactly the same just 40 weeks. In other words the teachers give exactly the same service."

THE KINDERGARTEN CASE.

"Mr. Gelder declares that new kindergartens are being established that schools may get more money from the state for daily attendance in schools. Mr. Gelder evidently did not know that no money is apportioned by the state for kindergarten attendance."

"Mr. Gelder blames the teachers for the coming convention. As a matter of fact the bringing of the N. E. A. to Oakland was the work of the commercial organizations. The teachers co-operated only when invited to do so by the Commercial Club, and the direction of the campaign was in the hands of the business men."

"Mr. Gelder objects to the kindergartens established in Oakland. These were established by the board of education after petitions had been filed by the people, according to law. The teachers can hardly be blamed for teaching methods are his, and he is honest in them. I don't care to pass on Mr. Gelder's wisdom or his viewpoint, so I cannot discuss these points with him."

Gelder's speech contained a spirited attack against modern school methods.

RAPS NEW IDEAS.

"We have all kinds of new-fangled ideas," he declared, "and are spending great sums filling the heads of children with whims, fancies and caprices. We show them how to look at stars, eat with a fork instead of a knife and cook fancy contraptions no one could or would eat. Now the teachers want three months' vacation that they may attend teachers' conventions at which they will plot trouble and make plans for salary increases to bother the state legislature with."

Gelder declared that the bill for supervisors, defeated at the last legislature, was the result of "they may attend among teachers and create more jobs."

He declared that kindergartens are established merely to increase per capita school attendance and collect money on it, and made other criticisms of the state school system.

DRUG CASE MYSTIFIES POLICE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Assisted by detectives of the police department, attaches of the district attorney's office are today investigating the circumstances surrounding the strange experience of Miss Mabel Cox, 18 years of age, a daughter of Brigadier General Frank M. Cox, U. S. A., retired, who was found wandering about the streets last evening in a dazed condition.

The girl declared that she was mysteriously drugged and maltreated while in the photograph gallery of F. O. Hausler, at Sutter and Fillmore streets, by a young man whom she had never seen before, and from whom she had accepted a drink of water while preparing to be photographed in dance costume. The stories of the girl and of Hausler the photographer, are so much at variance with each other that the authorities do not know which one to believe.

Miss Cox was seen wandering about Fillmore street, near Sutter, shortly after 6 o'clock last evening. Her hair was disheveled and her clothing in disorder. A passerby notified Patrolman Moore, who questioned the girl. She was incoherent, and he had her removed to the hall of justice in an automobile. She remained in a dazed condition for more than half an hour before recovering sufficiently to tell the details of her story.

She explained that she had desired to be photographed as a surprise to her mother, and had gone to Hausler's gallery to pose first in street clothes, and later in a dance costume which she took with her. She was first pictured in street costume, she said, after which she retired to a dressing room to change to the dance gown. When ready to again pose, she said, her throat felt suddenly dry, and she asked for a drink of water of a strange young man she saw in the gallery.

The water was brought, Miss Cox declares that she remembers nothing after that time until she became coherent in the hall of justice. She exonerates Hausler from all blame, declaring that he treated her with all courtesy and kindness. The mysterious youth, however, she declares to be entirely responsible for her condition.

Miss Cox's story varies much with that of Hausler. He says that after she had been photographed in her street dress the girl left the gallery and returned in half an hour. When she tried to pose in her dance gown, he said, she was weak, hardly able to stand and finally went into hysterics. After giving her first aid treatment she left the gallery without assistance, he said.

General Cox, father of the girl, is a civil war veteran, with a distinguished career in the army. He has been ill lately, and was unable last night to take any (Continued on Page 14, Col. 3)

BOY OR GIRL? PROPHECY IS MADE EASY!

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—Do you want a message from the stars?

If so, there is a new way to get one, according to Dr. George Starr White of 327 South Alvarado street, Los Angeles.

"Stand the prospective mother on an aluminum plate with her face to the north," declared Dr. White in his lecture today. "If she points her right finger at you, it is going to be a girl. If she points her left hand finger at you, it's a boy."

"Very simple, and a sure test." There are, however, stumbling blocks to this test if the prospective mother doesn't happen to be familiar with it. For instance, she must not eat anything or drink anything of a yellow color for five hours before the test. Dr. White assured his auditors that a yellow drink changes the polarity.

Another novel discovery which Dr. White states he has made pertains to sleeping habits.

"If you want to sleep well, always lie with your head to the north. This allows the line of force in the body to exercise, Dr. White asserts."

"To sleep with your head to the east causes insomnia," he explained. The sleeper may never know this, but the trouble is there, and is called "silent insomnia."

FIENDS BLIND OAKLAND WOMAN

Ammonia Thrown Into Eyes of Helpless Storekeeper by Thugs.

Mrs. Daisy Smith of 2013 Brookdale street, was blinded in her eyes today as the result of her horrifying experience with two robbers who broke into a confectionary shop at 2214 Mission street, San Francisco. Although blinded by ammonia which had been thrown into her face and beaten with a blunt instrument in the hands of her assailant, Mrs. Smith, who is the wife of J. H. Smith of this city, is expected to recover.

An examination this morning disclosed that her eyes were not seriously burned and although she is suffering from concussion of the brain it is believed that she will soon be on her feet again. During the temporary absence of the proprietor, Mrs. Smith was caring for the store between 6 and 7 o'clock last night. Suddenly two men entered and asked for some oysters. Mrs. Smith told them that there were none for sale and at a signal both made toward her.

"She backed towards the partition and suddenly the foremost stranger raised his hand and dashed the contents of a vial of ammonia in her face. With the scorching fluid burning her eyes, Mrs. Smith raised her hands to her face and was seized by a blow on the face. The robbers then rifled the cash register of $15 and ran out leaving their victim dazed on the floor. There she was found by William Zorns, the clerk, returning from his supper. She was hurried to the Mission Emergency Hospital and later in the evening was brought home by her husband and son in a taxicab.

This morning a careful examination was made of the woman's injuries. It was found that she had suffered a contusion of the scalp, a laceration over the left eyebrow, concussion of the brain and burns of the eyelids.

"While the others went to supper, I was alone," said Mrs. Smith, explaining what occurred last night, "when the two men came in and asked for oysters. I told them that we didn't keep them and one of them came at me and threw the acid in my face. I was blinded and felt a heavy weight on my head. That is all I remember."

Four officers from the Woodland police department were on duty at the time. Deputy Sheriff Hillhouse held no terror for Samuel. He was chased through the streets and into a field. Hillhouse then fired his six-shooter at the horse and buggy. The horse was killed and the buggy was damaged. Samuel and Thompson were taken into custody. BIG CANAL OPENED
WITH PUBLIC CEREMONY

OROVILLE, May 20.—Oroville and the entire southern portion of Butte county joined today in a mammoth celebration of the opening of the Western canal, which will plant 30,000 acres of land lying west of Oroville under water. The head of the canal was opened and water rushed into the big ditch. As the water forced its way into the canal Dorothy Norris, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Norris, was taken into custody. She was charged with stealing a horse and buggy from a livery stable last Sunday.

Hazel Bess Leavenworth, the first woman to swim the Golden Gate, gave a feature act for the program. Dressed to represent the Spirit of the Feather, she swam in the head of the canal. The canal will distribute the water from the dam of the Great Western Power Company at Big Meadows. There were brief addresses by representatives of the various organizations. The ceremony was a success.

Poisoned Weed Kills Hundreds of Sheep

By Associated Press.
SPOKANE, Wash., May 19.—More than 1100 sheep are dead within a radius of three miles from Spokane, a lambert of the "white cane" weed, was reported here by J. J. Minnick, a state food inspector, who returned from Spokane today. Crazed by the weed, part of the sheep ran wild through the town until they died in convulsions, while hundreds plunged into the Kootenai river and were drowned. The sheep were part of a flock of 1500 shipped a few days ago from Prosser, Wash., by Walter Kemp to be pastured in the forest reserve near Spokane.

PATROLMEN LYONS AGAIN PLACED UNDER CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—Patrolman John J. Lyons, who has been three times before the police commission on charges, was accused again today by Captain McManus of the Bush street station. He is alleged to have been absent from duty between 2 a. m. and 6 a. m. on Sunday morning. He was detailed to patrol Van Ness avenue, a most important beat. He met Corporal Nye at 1445. That officer became suspicious and looked him up at 2 o'clock. Nye spent the remainder of the night and morning at Market but says Lyons never showed up.

FIND STRATHESK Cleared Falsely

British Freighter Is Believed to Have Gone to Chilean Nitrate Port.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—Although every liner and coastwise steamer within reach of the wireless department of the Chamber of Commerce was notified at an early hour this morning, no report promptly when the British freighter Strathesk should be located, not a sign of the missing vessel has been found. The steamer Strathesk was reported to have been sighted off the coast of Chile, but the Chilean authorities here are certain that she has "gone foreign," which is the seaman's way of saying that she has left for another country.

It is generally admitted that the Strathesk has been requisitioned by the British admiralty to carry supplies to England. The mysterious activity in connection with the Strathesk began to be noticeable on Saturday. Captain Lyons, who was detailed to patrol Van Ness avenue, a most important beat. He met Corporal Nye at 1445. That officer became suspicious and looked him up at 2 o'clock. Nye spent the remainder of the night and morning at Market but says Lyons never showed up.

ROTARIANS FLOAT BIG ORGANIZATION FLAG

Meetings of Oakland's Rotary Club members will hereafter be announced by a big rotary flag in the organization's colors. The big banner, with its central wheel, the club emblem, floated from the barge of the Hotel Oakland for the first time today. The occasion was the weekly luncheon of the organization. Hereafter, the flag will be flown from the building in which the organization is meeting, and will serve to apprise members that there is a gathering.

ROCKEFELLER IS WITNESS Federal Commission Hears of Coal Strike

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 19.—John D. Rockefeller Jr. read a detailed statement at the resumption today of his examination before the Industrial Relations Commission in connection with the Colorado coal strike. He said that he had been the directing mind in the strike and suggested he be made for carrying on the industrial strike.

Mr. Rockefeller, in support of his contention that every effort was made to bring about peace, read letters and telegrams submitted to the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company during the strike. Mr. Rockefeller denied that he or his associates had anything to do with the prosecution of John D. Rockefeller Jr. He said that he had been the directing mind in the strike and suggested he be made for carrying on the industrial strike.

Mr. Rockefeller reiterated his announced intention of visiting Colorado to investigate conditions which he said had been prevented by an unfortunate succession of events. He assured the commission that in the meantime officers of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company are co-operating with employees to improve conditions and that they are meeting with gratifying success. The witness also gave the commission a statement of denial made to the press on April 15 last, in answer to the charge that correspondence filed with the commission shows that he exercised "a personal influence that extended even to the state house at Denver and presumed to dictate letters that went out to the president of the United States and the governors of the states, over the signature of the Governor of Colorado."

MME. MIRZA ALI KHAN ARRIVES FROM EAST TO MAKE RESIDENCE HERE

Madame Mirza Ali Khan, wife of the Persian Charge d'Affaires in Washington, arrived from the east this morning, and was met at the station by her husband and Mr. Thornton Moore of Piedmont, who is the wife of the Persian consul in San Francisco. The party drove at once to the residence Mirza Ali Khan has leased in Mountain avenue, Piedmont, for the next six months. Madame Khan will be an interesting figure in Oakland society during her stay. She is an American woman, who was Miss Florence Breed of Boston before her marriage a dozen years ago to the Persian diplomat. She is a leader in Washington and entertains a great deal at her beautiful home in the capital.

CONVICT SHIP SUCCESS FREE TO NEWSBOYS

Captain D. H. Smith of the old British convict ship Success, which is on exhibition at the wharf adjoining the Webster street bridge, has always had a warm feeling for newsboys and during his four of America visits has always made it a point to visit the boys and give them a treat. In cooperation with the management of the Success, the newsboys of Oakland shall have free access to the old ship and its hundred exhibits at any time during the day. The newsboys will be present to conduct the newsboys over the vessel and relate to them all the romantic and practical stories concerning the history of the vessel and of the most notorious criminals dealt with when she was in commission.

GROCERY HOUSES REPUDIATE BLAME

Not Responsible for High Cost of Living, Is Message From Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—That the grocers of the nation are not responsible for the high cost of living, is the message of the wholesale grocers meeting in convention in San Francisco, to the outside world. They have heard reports and compared notes, they declare, and they say that despite the war and other circumstances, every effort has been made to keep prices of food down.

The National Wholesale Grocers' Association convention is one of the big events in the business year. The delegates are meeting at the Palace Hotel, where President O. H. McGlasson of Chicago is directing the business deliberations of the organization.

Mayor James Rolph addressed the grocers met yesterday when the convention opened, and a number of prominent business men were heard.

Committees today started work on different details of the convention's activities, the committee men being named by the president as follows:

Auditing—Warren Goddard, Missouri; R. F. Pearson, Indiana; Edward Dexter, Connecticut.

Press—Howard Humphries, Illinois; James Hewitt, Pennsylvania; W. B. Timms, New York.

The standing committee, to which the chairman said all resolutions must be first submitted, consists of:

Amended reports of officers were declared in order.

President McGlasson's report received an enthusiastic reception. Throughout his address he was frequently interrupted with applause.

He told of the association's activities and growth during the last year and vigorously denied the charge that wholesale grocers in the United States had taken advantage of the European war to boost prices, justifying the slight rise in the cost of food products.

"The business of feeding mankind," he said, "is a difficult one, under the best conditions. But the world war forced unprecedented conditions on the food distributors of America. Despite this fact, increased prices were occasioned principally by demands for foreign-made goods, which I consider luxuries."

ROYAL ARCH IN SESSION.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Delegates to the annual convention of the Royal Arch Grand Lodge are in business session today, following a celebration at the Exposition and a bay trip ending in a visit to Winehaven, where they inspected the latest wine-making methods. They were greeted at the fair by Exposition officials, and today are considering campaign details and business matters in secret session.

FAMILY OF SEVENTY COSTLY TAG DAY MUST AID CHARITY

Food	$ 4,150.30
Clothing	99.79
Repairing shoes	119.75
Laundry	714.45
Drugs	191.36
Fuel	947.91
House furnishings	463.97
Repairs	1,090.40
Taxes	120.80
Camp Expenses	74.20
Labor	5,647.45
Sundries	1,324.50
Total	$15,004.85

The West Oakland Home has made an experiment in an economic running of a family averaging from 70 to 80 children, and in 1914 was enabled to present the above figures. Inasmuch as their assured income from state aid, children's relations, trust fund and dues amounted to only $8,324.50, it will readily be suggested why a tag day on Saturday is imperative. Food, fuel, labor and drugs have steadily advanced in cost, while the number of children in the care of the Campbell-street building has increased. The present year will run the expenses beyond any in the past, even with the strictest economy. The West Oakland Home cares for children all over the country. The nursery shelter a score of infants abandoned by their parents or foundlings left on doorsteps. Trained nurses, proper foods and diet make this branch of the home the most expensive. The babies are kept in the nursery until their third year. The remaining 60 children range in age up to 16 years.

So it is to keep these parentless kiddies comfortable that the women of the West Oakland Home are asking the public to share with them a part of the burden on Saturday by buying a tag and help in piling up the mountain of dimes which will spell the $7,000 needed to defray the year's expenses.

Mrs. George Ryno, under whose generalship the 500 society maids and matrons who form the city, has issued her final instructions to the 25 captains. Every group of young girls is to have a chaperone, and careful notice is given that the nicest courtesy must be extended the public, even to the returning of the proper change.

Among those who will assist the various captains are: Mrs. William A. Schrock, Mrs. B. F. Shaw, Mrs. Walter G. Kleinschmidt, Mrs. Robert F. Collins, Miss Gladys Peaslee, Mrs. Howard J. Luckey, Miss Lackey, Miss Frances Shaw, Miss Gwendolyn Shaw, Miss Eva Gruninger, Mrs. C. J. Long, Mrs. S. S. Shepard, Mrs. H. D. Smith, Mrs. Franz Collischo, Miss Eva Nordwell, Miss Adele Scott, Mrs. Fred Laufer, Mrs. Minna Gleason, Mrs. Rose Leimer, Miss Linda Wight, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Miss Rachael Shane, Miss Margaret Shane, Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. C. Raso, Mrs. H. W. Kent, Mrs. Henrietta Kuntz, Mrs. M. V. Politeo and Mrs. J. D. Cardinell.

ZONE DAY PLANS ARE RAPIDLY COMPLETED

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama-Pacific Exposition, May 20.—Air, earth and sky will make Zone Day a thrilling affair.

Art Smith, aloft in his illuminated bi-plane in stunts that will make aeronautical history; the famous "Golden Gate" winding its colorful way among the buildings of the Exposition; the destruction of a ship by submarine mines, are but a part of the features.

On the platform in the Zone plaza will be staged a contest called the "Ball of the Nations' Beauties." Here the official program, built with a dizzying volume of adjectives that sets the brain in a whirl. However, those in charge are not contenting themselves with devising adjectives merely, but are planning to make that platform on the Zone plaza a really beautiful affair.

An electric ballet will be a lovely affair. A dance of all Nations and an international Cake Walk contest will also take place on this platform.

Both the cakewalk and the fiddlers' contest will prove interesting to those who find the more strenuous feats, such as Art Smith's dare-devilry in the air, the saving of lives by firemen, the blowing up of the "Titanic" for the thrill of life too much of a good thing.

Archbishop Holt of Sacramento performed the ceremony. The bride's attendant was her sister, Beth Nelson. The best man was Frank W. Stephens, brother of the groom. The ushers were Frank Nelson, Jack Stephens, Dixon Stephens and Floyd Tuttle. The bride is the daughter of the late W. W. Nelson. Stephens is the son of George Stephens, a wealthy Madison rancher.

Y. M. C. A. DAY SET AT EXPOSITION

Officials Designate May 25; J. R. Mott to Deliver Address of the Day.

The Exposition authorities have designated Tuesday, May 25, as Young Men's Christian Association Day. The excess of the day will be given at 3 p. m. in Festival hall by John R. Mott of New York, the general secretary for foreign work of the association. The meeting will be opened by an organ recital by Dr. Maurice W. McConnell. Then follows the presentation of the bronze plaque in recognition of the service rendered by the Young Men's Christian Association.

"The Present World Situation" is the subject of Mr. Mott's address. Having been in close touch with the political situation of Europe for the past 15 years, and knowing personally the leading figures of the great movements of today, Mr. Mott is preeminently fitted to speak on this subject. It was this close acquaintance that caused President Wilson to offer him the position of ambassador to China. He is an unbiased man and speaks from the standpoint of neutrality. His descriptions of the conditions as actually existing are graphic, and he presents pictures that can never be gained by reading the daily dispatches.

A reception will be held at 6:30 p. m. and banquet at 7 o'clock at the Inside Inn. The speakers there will be Mr. Mott and L. Wilbur Messer. Mr. Messer is general secretary of the Chicago Young Men's Christian Association and among the foremost of the general secretaries of America.

Any information desired, or reservations for the banquet, can be had at the local association.

Nervous Period- ical Headaches

Successful Anti-Kamnia Tablets

This trouble commonly called "tick headache," is said to be due to the retention of acids in the system. Often it is stated that a person can feel a tick in the back of the head, or that it is a nervous condition; and in certain cases, no doubt this is true. When treatment is demanded, it is more for the pain than anything else, and Dr. A. F. Schellachmidt of Louisville, has found Anti-Kamnia Tablets to give prompt and satisfactory relief. "Rest should be insisted upon," he says, "and the patient should go to bed, draw the room, and let the attendants and family should be as quiet as possible. An emetic will sometimes shorten the attack. The bowels should be kept open with 'Acioids'; a hot bath and a thorough rub-down with a coarse towel, after the patient has rested for two or three days, will prevent the attack. During an attack, one tablet every two or three hours, until the attack and relieve the usual pains and vomiting." These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for Anti-Kamnia Tablets. They are also effective for nervous headaches, neuritis and all pains.

EDITORIAL

The question has often been asked why it is that at Bowman's Kodak Department one gets so much better results from films than anywhere else.

The answer is simple.
It is for the reason that we take more care in our work.

Every film receives individual attention in development and is separately handled by an expert, whose effort is to bring it up to its greatest possibilities.

You cannot get such results when you handle
a lot of films in batches
in a wholesale manner, and, although the latter plan is cheaper and quite generally prevalent, it is not our way.

Therefore, as you take your snap shots throughout the coming summer, remember to send the films to us if you want bright, sharp, clear prints. We will surprise you with the results. If you've never tried our work before.

WEST OAKLAND HOME BENEFIT

We have been requested to publish the following verse in connection with the West Oakland Home
Benefit to be held next Saturday:

Cheer up, little kiddies
Of the West Oakland Home.

On the streets of Oakland
You won't have to roam.
The 22d of May
We'll gather in the dimes,
And there won't be a hint
Of the so-called hard times.

Bowman's has been selected as a "Lieutenant's station."
